

Honouring the Fatherhood of God

Tuesday 7th August 2018

*“Calling God by the name “Father” is not something that can be taken for granted...We are tempted to use the highest titles that are respectful of his transcendence. But calling him “Father” puts us in confidence with Him, like a child talking to his dad, knowing that he is loved and cared for by him.”

Pope Francis – Weekly general audience, in St Peter’s Square, at the Vatican, Wednesday, 7 June 2017.

“God is like a gentle father who holds us by the hand and we need to become like a small child to have a dialogue with Him. To understand God’s love, we need to become small like a child and what God seeks from us is a relationship like that between a father and child. God gives us a caress and tells us: I’m by your side”.

Pope Francis – at Santa Marta, 27 June 2014.
